

In this issue: A New Twist on the Same Market

We work specifically with janitorial contractors to increase their market penetra on, acquire new service contracts and boost their revenues through cold calling and appointment se ng. A successful cold calling campaign begins with the right message and the right contact list. A strong contact list determines the success of your program. Criteria for contact lists vary based upon our client's needs and market.

Type of business—Our greatest successes have occurred with the following:

- Non residen al property managers
- Private schools
- Offices of all types
- Manufacturing
- · Banks and financial ins tu ons
- Churches
- Medical facili es

Number of employees—We can pursue all businesses in your area with 20+, 50+, or 100 or more employees. We want to select the business size that is most likely to meet your square footage requirements.

Geographical market—We will work within your current service area. We can define your service area by the metro area, city, county, zip code, or within a specific number of miles from your office locaon.

Next steps—Determine your niche and market. What geographical area do you serve? How do you feel about pursuing maintenance agreements with governmental en es? What types of businesses are most likely prospects for you? In formula ng your contact list, these factors need to be considered.

Should you have any ques ons regarding star ng your program, please do not hesitate to contact us at any me.
